

---

Young Artists Musicales

---

DATE AND PLACE

Sunday, September 20, 2009, 6:00 pm

Sunday, November 15, 2009, 6:00 pm

Sunday, March 7, 2010, 6:00 pm

Sunday, May 9, 2010, 6:00 pm

George Mason University Center for the Arts, Concert Hall Lobby

LIAISON COMMITTEE

Amy Rothstein, Alice Heyer, Rosanne Conway, Jane Singleton

ELIGIBILITY

Young Artists Musicales (YAM) are presented in conjunction with Jeffrey Siegel's "Keyboard Conversations" performances at GMU. The YAM series features students selected by the Liaison Committee from NVMTA keyboard events. In making these selections, the Committee considers not only the artistry of a particular performance, but also whether a piece fits the time limitations and the repertoire needs of the YAM series.

REPERTOIRE REQUIREMENTS

The student must perform the composition for which he or she was selected. However, a student selected during one academic year to perform the following fall may change the repertoire, provided the length remains about the same.

TEACHER GUIDELINES

The Committee will send an invitation letter with performance and rehearsal details to teachers of selected performers. Teachers are responsible for contacting the students and informing them of YAM protocol and requirements. In particular, teachers must ensure that students understand that they are required to meet with Mr. Siegel following each YAM and attend his "Keyboard Conversations" concert. Each performer receives three complimentary tickets. Teachers must send each student's biography, telephone number, e-mail address and street address to all Liaison Committee Members.